RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

On July 19, 2021, Jammie Yerks filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that he suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) as a result of an influenza vaccination he received on October 17, 2019. Petition at ¶¶ 2, 14. Petitioner further alleges that he has experienced the residual effects of his injury for more than six months. Petition at ¶15. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On April 13, 2023, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, Respondent states that “DICP concluded that Petitioner’s left shoulder injury is consistent with SIRVA was defined by the Vaccine Injury Table. Specifically, Petitioner had no history or pain, inflammation, or dysfunction of his left shoulder that would explain is post-vaccination symptoms; pain occurred within forty-eight hours after receipt of an intramuscular vaccination; pain was limited to the shoulder in which the vaccine was administered; and no other condition or abnormality has been identified to explain Petitioner's shoulder pain." Id. at 4-5. Respondent further agrees that "Petitioner suffered the residual effects of his condition for more than six months." Id. at 5.

In view of Respondent's position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
